

FIRST FRIDAY ART TRAIL >>>

a program of LHUCA

J U L Y 2

LHUCA • 511 Ave K • 806-762-8606 • FFAT Hours 6pm-9pm • Gallery hours Wed-Sat 11am-5pm

- Christine DeVitt Exhibition Hall: Sarah Fisher records the human need to be authentically seen. Painting herself and people she knows, loves and encounters, Fisher works from photography created on her cell phone. Her subjects share a strong sense of self and a willingness to be known.
- Helen DeVitt Jones Studio Gallery: CO-OPT @ LHUCA will include work by Cody Arnall, Aaron Hegert with Everything is Collective, J. Eric Simpson, Heather Warren-Crow and Wind Tide (Gretchen Korsmo & Andrew Weathers). CO-OPT Research + Projects is an artist-run studio space and gallery located in Lubbock, Texas, founded in 2019.
- Martin McDonald Gallery: In "New Paths," Kaylee Appleton blurs the line between drawing, sculpture and photography through exploration of technology and materiality. This work explores the complicated relationship of society and the land by displaying visual platitudes of idealized depictions of the land.
- John F. Lott Gallery: A collection of video art pieces, curated by Juror Aaron Hegert. All genres of video were selected.
- LHUCA Plaza: Ms. Kris Song and Dance (6 pm), Lubbock Community Theatre (6:40 pm); Tigers (7:05 pm), Bleach Kings (8:10 pm).
